

SEPTEMBER 24, 2005

"a powerfully provoking and entertaining evening of film, discussion and blues music!"

6:30 PM

UUSS

WEST COAST DEBUT!

Film Screening & Discussion
followed by a Blues Performance
Tickets: $15

Film introduction by filmmaker Suzanne Moe, Performance by Gaye Adegbalola (of Saffire - The Uppity Blues Women) and accompanist Roddy Barnes, both of whom appear and perform in the film.

In 2004, over the protests of the Governor of Virginia, the state legislature went further than any other in the country by prohibiting contracts which "purport to bestow the privileges or obligations of marriage" between two individuals of the same-sex. This educational, inspiring and disturbing documentary looks at the impact of the law through the lives of one couple, forced to leave the state when the discriminatory and arguably unconstitutional legislation went into effect. THIS STORY TRANSCENDS 'GAY RIGHTS' - IT'S ABOUT HUMAN RIGHTS.

Unitarian Universalist Society of Sacramento
2425 Sierra Boulevard | Sacramento, California

"...it's important to push back against this kind of discrimination, to shut it down before it gets out here." - Tina Stidman | promoter | UUSS