

CONCERNED ABOUT HEALTH CARE?

Join Us At The

Contra Costa Health Advocates Forum: Getting to Health Care for All Californians

SATURDAY, JUNE 24, 2006

10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Registration begins at 9:30 a.m.

A light lunch will be served

Olympic High School

2730 Salvio Street, Concord

At the forum, you will:

LEARN how California can create a health care system that works for everyone.

PRACTICE skills to become a more effective advocate for health care reform.

PLAN activities with other local people to build support for health care reform in Contra Costa County.

PRESENTERS

Helen Acosta, Communications Consultant, Professor of Communications, Bakersfield College; Sue Bergman, Vote Health; Billie Anne Jones, Contra Costa ACORN; Keith Pace, California School Employees Association; Pat Snyder, Health Care for All Contra Costa.

Reservations required. RSVP to Barbara Mays, CSEA, (925) 288-1150, Bmays@csea.com

Sponsored by Health Access California, Health Care for All Contra Costa, Contra Costa ACORN, the California School Employees Association, Latino Issues Forum, & Breast Cancer Action